PROGRAM OF MUSIC

BUFFET SUPPER SERVED AT CLOSE OF ENTERTAINMENT.

Leading Citizens of District Present as Guests.

The Washington Board of Trade enter tained last evening in the large banquet hall of the New Willard with a musical program, after which a buffet supper was served to 350 members and their guests.

The board on this occasion determined that it would have an evening with its friends in Congress and elsewhere with every opportunity for renewing old acquaintances and making new ones without the usual acompaniment of speeches. The experiment proved a most popular one. In place of the speeches were songs and orchestral and other instrumental selections. After there had been a general mix-up and exchange of greetings on the part of the large assemblage, the guests being received by a committee, a buglar sounded a call that brought members and guests to attention. General George H. Harries then attention. General George H. Harries then announced the program and attention was given to it for over an hour. "Slumber Sweet," by an octet of male voices, consisting of W. D. McFarland, Alexander Mosher, P. B. Turpin, H. C. Pearson, J. Henry Kaiser, F. P. Reeside, J. Walter Humphrey and C. W. Hancock, was the first number of the program. A cornet solo by Frank Todhunier also proved extremefirst number of the program. A cornet solo by Frank Todhunter also proved extremely popular. He played an air from "Lucia." The octet was again presented to sing "Don't You Cry," and Mr. Humphrey sang 'Down Deep in the Cellar," "My Love Nell," and "Four Leaf Clover," the last two being in response to encores. Mr. Herman Rakemann gave two violin numbers and Mr. Todhunter was recalled to play "Nevin's Rosary." The concluding number was "The Forest" by the octet.

The guests had been provided with white carnations and the members with pink ones upon their arrival; and after the

The house boat Gresilda, belonging to Mr. Frank Rawlings of this city, with the power sloop Francina, also owned by Mr. Rawlings, went adrift in the ice this morning and, aided by the strong westerly wind, were drifting rapidly down the harbor in momentary danger of being carried into a wharf and badly damaged, when the harbor police boat Vigilant went after the house boat and sloop, and, taking the boats in tow, carried them to a place of safety and anchored them securely.

The Gresilda and Fraulina have been lyng at anchor in the harbor near the Long bridge throughout the entire winter. The pulling of the mooring anchor of the house boat by drifting ice was the cause of her eaving her moorings.

More Than Half of District Realty Non-Taxable.

PERCENTAGES

TAXPAYERS MEET EXPENSES ON SMALL ASSESSMENT LIST.

Summary of Figures Supplied by Assessor Darneille Upon Request of Commissioner West.

From more than one-half of the real property in the District of Columbia the District government derives no tax revenues. according to a statement submitted to Commissioner West today by Hopewell H: Darneille, the District assessor. To be more explicit, 57.107 per cent of all the real property in the District is either "nontaxable" or exempted from taxation under special provisions of the law, and of this large percentage of property free from taxation 53.132 per cent is owned by the government of the United States. Eliminating the non-taxable and exempt property from consideration, it is shown that 42.898 per cent of the property in the District is obliged to bear the District's onehalf share of the expense of running the local government.

The statement submitted by Assessor Darneille today has been prepared at the request of Commissioner West in response to a motion made in the Senate about two months ago by Senator Gallinger.' The statement is quite comprehensive, and comprises a list of each piece of property in the District from which no tax revenues are derived. The statement will be sent to the Senate and later will be printed as a public document.

The total assessed value of property in the District of Columbia is placed at $497,-157,266, and of this amount $283,906,848 is either non-taxable or exempt from taxation. All of the property belonging to the United States, which amounts to 53.132 per cent of the whole amount of reel property in the District, is non-taxable, and 1.21 per cent of the whole amount of property be-longing to the District is also non-taxable. The remaining 2.765 per cent of non-revenue-pearing property in the District is owned as follows: Legations, 0.11 per cent; religious institutions, 1.27 per cent; charitable institutions, 0.43 per cent; educational institutions, 0.840 per cent; cemeteries, 0.084 per cent; Chesapeake and Ohio canal, 0.022 per cent.

The Commissioners yesterday granted hearings relative to the exemption of three additional pieces of property owned by re-ligious institutions or associations, and there are several other requests for exemp-tion of property now under consideration by the District authorities. In view of the large amount of property owned in the District by the federal government, the amount of property in the Bistrict on which no are paid is regarded as extraordinarily large, and recently private citizens and citizens' associations have begun to discuss with unusual interest the subject

LOCAL BUSINESS ONLY. Potomac Insurance Company to Leave 5.191 As predicted in The Evening Star, the Po $108,107 tomac Insurance Company, which was a heavy loser by the Baltimore fire, has decided to rehabilitate itself by retiring from the outside field and confining its risks in the future to purely local properties. This conclusion was reached at a meeting of the directors held last night. It was realized from the outset that the attempt to put the company on its feet by making an assessment of $12.50 per share would not be successful, and as a matter of fact there was very little hope that it would be when the call was sent out.

the Outside Field.

The company will at once reinsure all of its foreign business, and from the money made on this proposition will be able to replace the loss to the capital stock and have a reserve fund of about $25,000 with which

o continue business This is the arrangement that will be in effect for the present, and later on the pro-posed combination of interests forming a large company with half a million dollars' capital and half a million surplus will probably result with the Potomac as a basis, and taking in one or more of the smaller local companies.
